JOSIAH WARREN

Warren, Josiah: Equitable Commerce, 1846 o quizás 1847.

Una segunda edición apareció en 1849 en Utopía, Ohio, y una tercera fué editada en 1852 por Fowler y Wells en Nueva York, con un prólogo de Stephen Pearl Andrews, en donde se dice que Warren le había encargado de la redacción de su obra. - Practicable Details of Equitable Commerce, New York, 1852. Este escrito contiene las experiencias prácticas que había recogido Warren en los últimos veinte años. - True Civilization an Immediate Necessity and the Last Ground of Hope for Humanity, Boston, 1863. - True Civilization: a subject of vital and serious interest to all people, but most immediately to the Men and Women of Labor and Sorrow, Clintondale, Mass. 1869. En esta edición fué reproducido Equitable Commerce, según la redacción de Andrews. Una edición idéntica apareció en 1875 en Princeton, Mass. Otra edición fué publicada por Tucker en 1881. en Boston. - Practical Applications of the Elementary Principles of True Civilization to the Minute Details of Every Day Live. Being Part three and last, Princeton, Mass. 1873. Este escrito debía terminar la obra principal de Warren, pero quedó incompleto. Según parece, Warren tenía la intención de editar el último escrito en cuadernillos, pero la enfermedad y la muerte le impidieron realizar ese propósito. El último ensayo de solo cuarenta y ocho páginas. Contiene una breve historia de sus experiencias prácticas y una discusión con el socialista cristiano Adin Ballou sobre el principio de costo. La continuación prometida no apareció nunca. - Reflections upon the Civil War, 1863. - Written Music, Remodeled and Invested with the simplicity of an exact Science, Boston, 1860. Sobre la vida de Warren informan:

William Bailie: Josiah Warren The First American Anarchist. A Sociological Study, Boston, 1906. Sobre los experimentos prácticos de las diversas tendencias socialistas informan:

BENJAMIN R. TUCKER

Tucker, Benj. R.: Anarchism or Anarchy? a Discussion between William R. Tillinghurst and Benj. R. Tucker. Prefaced by an open Letter to Rev. William J. Potter, 1881. - State Socialism and Anarchism: How far they agree, and wherein they differ. Apareció primeramente en Liberty en 1888 y fué publicado después en folleto repetidamente, por ejemplo en 1895 en Londres. Apareció una traducción alemana en 1895 en Berlín y una Holandesa en 1896 en Amsterdam. - Relation of the State to the Individual. An Address delivered before the Unitarian Ministers' Institute in Salem, Mass., 1890. Hay traducción alemana de John Henry Mackay, aparecida en 1899 en Berlín. - Instead of a Book. By A Man Too Busy to Write One. A Fragmentary Exposition of Philosophical Anarchism. New York, 1893. Second Edition 1897. Contiene todos los artículos importantes de

Tucker hasta 1893. - Henry George, Traitor, New York, 1896. - A. L. S. to Mr. Crosby, New York, 1898. - A Blow at Trial by Jury. An examination of the special jury law passed by the New York Legislature in 1896, New York, 1898. - Are Anarchists Thugs?, New York, 1899. Selections from the Writings of Benjamin R. Tucker*, edited by Clarence Lee Swartz, New York, 1926. Esta obra es una reedición de Instead of a Book de Tucker sin los artículos polémicos que han perdido su significación originaria. En cambio posee la ventaja de contener artículos publicados en Liberty después de 1893.

Un artículo de Tucker sobre sus relaciones con Victoria Woodhull apareció como un capítulo especial en el libro de Emanie Sachs, The Terrible Siren, Nueva York, 1928.

Joseph Ishill dedicó a Tucker un número especial de su Free Vistas (Vol. II, 1937), que, además de las cartas de Morton Fullerton, George B. Shaw, Pearl Johnson, H. L. Mencken y Tucker, contiene los siguientes artículos: Boston Radicals, As Mild Mannered Men and Women as Ever Scuttled the Ship of State (from The Boston Sunday Globe 5 de abril de 1891), Memories of Benjamin R. Tucker by J. William Lloyd, The Influence of Tucker's Ideas in France by Emile Armand, My Uncle Benjamin by George Macdonald, My Contact with Benjamin R. Tucker by Clarence Lee Swartz y Benjamin R. Tucker: A Tribute by Henry Meulen. Además contiene este número una introducción de Joseph Ishill, una carta de Tucker al redactor del American Journal of Sociology, que en este número de Ishill fué publicada por primera vez con el título How Tucker Flays a Critic! y algunos retratos de Tucker.
